Favorable report of the Joint Committee on Appropriations.

MR. EARLE (NORTH HAVEN):

Mr. Speaker, I move acceptance of the Joint Committee's Favorable Report and passage of the bill.

MR. SPEAKER:

Question is on acceptance and passage. Will you remark?

MR. EARLE (NORTH HAVEN):

Mr. Speaker, this is rather a long bill which has taken many months to prepare insofar as the reorganization of our court system is concerned. Primarily it deals with the appointment of an administrator. It also encompasses through out the system various pay raises for the judges within the systems, the elected officials of this state. It also covers the various pension systems. It allows us seven new judges within the super-
