sently constituted. It is hoped that the new makeup of the commission will allow for more efficient operations and expedition of the drawing up of the rules and regulations. I believe that the bill as amended, will accomplish this purpose.

THE CHAIR:

Question is on passage of the bill, as amended. All those in favor signify by saying, "aye". Opposed. The bill is passed, as amended.

THE CLERK:

CAL. NO. 1078. File No. 1210. Favorable report of the Joint Committee on Judiciary and Governmental Functions. Modified Senate Bill No. 1521. An Act concerning the Basis of Personal Jurisdiction as a Result of the Act of (Non-Domiciliaries) Nonresident Individuals and Foreign Partnerships.

SENATOR PICKETT:

This is an extension of the long-arm statute, Mr. President, this in effect increases the ability of people, in the State of Connecticut, to bring into this jurisdiction, those persons who are outside the State of Connecticut, but, who have established themselves as residents for two purposes, by performing any of the acts as set forth in section 1 of the bill.

Again, this is an extension of what is called the long-arm statute. To bring personal jurisdiction into Connecticut for people who have been in Connecticut doing business and making them subject to the laws of the Courts of the State of Connecticut.

SENATOR PICKETT:

Mr. President, I move acceptance of the committee's favorable report and passage of the bill. We have now gone from the permissiveness of smoking pot to the virgility of committing crimes while armed. Quite seriously, this bill is in recognition of a disastrous and some very serious crimes that have been committed throughout the United States, and unfortunately, in the State of Connecticut, from time to time. What we intend is that people that are armed while committing crimes shall receive severe penalties.

SENATOR HICKEY:

Mr. President, I'd like to say that I support this bill. I think it's a very important act. In my humble opinion, it will go a lot further than licensing or a registration bills that we can pass in this or any other session.

SENATOR LYDDY:

Mr. President, I think this is a wonderful bill, a good step forward. I'm very happy that the Judiciary Committee de-

Mr. speaker, this gives jurisdiction to Courts in Connecticut over persons who conduct business in the State of Conn. who reside outside of the State of Conn. This is commonly known as the Long Arm ~~Statute~~ Statute, which permits, service across State line. This bill protects the resident's of the State of Conn. They may sue people within the State of Conn, with out going to a neighboring State, to sue them in the event they are wrong. This is a good bill it should pass Mr. speaker.

MR. SPEAKER:

Will ~~ix~~ you remark further on the bill?
