examine the operations and performance of State agencies to determine their effectiveness of achieving the legislative purposes and report their findings and recommendations for improvements in State services to the Governor and the Joint Committee on Legislative Management. It also allows that they may engage or retain the services of such consultants, technical assistance, research and other personnel as they deem necessary to assist in such examinations. I think it is a fine extension of their duties and it may produce further economic savings to the State and I move its passage.

DEPUTY SPEAKER:

Will you remark further on the bill. If not, all those in favor will indicate by saying AYE. Opposed. THE BILL IS PASSED.

THE CLERK:

MR. CARRAGHER: (2nd)

Mr. Speaker, this bill simplifies the procedure for settlement of claim against the State. It eliminates from the present statutes, a section of the statutes the requirement that any claim shall be supported by the presenter that the entire labor has been performed and that there is no reward from the State expected. It allows the agency which ordered or received under the contract to certify that the job is completed and no reward has been promised. Mr. Speaker, I move the passage of the bill.

DEPUTY SPEAKER:

Will you remark further on the bill. The gentleman from the 16th.

MR. HANNON: (16th)

Mr. Speaker, we are off and running again. I have been requested that this item be Passed, Retaining and I so move you, sir.

DEPUTY SPEAKER:

Is there objection to the matter being Retained. The matter will be Retained.
