or hers assigned physician, psychiatrist, etc. That no mental patient's personal problems or records be discussed in any way or manner at or in large or small groups of rank and file employees nor before any group or groups of mental patients. I thank you.

Sen. Jackson: Thank you very much. Mr. Lynch to be followed by Attorney Glenn.

Mr. Lynch: My name is William J. Lynch, I am a Legislative Administrator Advisor for the Connecticut Department of Transportation and I have been asked to appear here today in support of H. B. #5714.

H. B. #5714 - AN ACT CONCERNING DISCLOSURE OF PROPERTY OF PERSONS AGAINST WHOM THE STATE HAS A CLAIM.

This Bill would permit other State Agencies having claims against debtors to utilize the facilities that are presently available in the matter of welfare actions under Section 17-303. This would tend to keep down the cost of recovering what are frequently small sums of money and would also expedite the litigation of those cases where it was necessary.

For this reason, the Department of Transportation supports this Bill. Thank you, Gentlemen.

Sen. Jackson: Mr. Glenn to be followed by Mr. Arafah.

Mr. Glenn: Mr. Chairman, Members of the Committee, my name is William E. Glenn, I am an Attorney appearing on behalf of the Connecticut Bankers Association. I will speak very briefly on 3 or 4 Bills. H. B. #7256 -

H. B. #7256 - AN ACT CONCERNING DISCLOSURE OF BENEFICIARIES OF REAL PROPERTY HELD IN TRUST.

In listening to Representative Miller, it seems that the purpose here is a ~~locatable~~ <sup>locatable</sup> one and I think, Mr. Chairman, you directed yourself to this question in West Hartford some years ago having to do with hiding the true interest through the use of trust or some other means. The only thing we can point out is that there are many, many trusts where there are corporate trustees having contingent on bona on determined beneficiaries and this would require a great deal of work just to file all the names even if we could determine them in all cases.

On H. B. #7485.

H. B. #7485 - AN ACT CONCERNING PROPERTY IN DECEDENT'S ESTATE.

Reducing the period before (as <sup>escheat</sup> Chief) to the State from 5 to 10 years, I think it is recognized that it is generally longer in other states and that many times banks and lawyers have been successful in locating lost heirs during a period of time of well in excess of five years and we would therefore hope that the Committee would not give this a reduction of time favorable consideration.
