Before we begin formal business, I indicate that last nights and last days being as they will, it's going to be our intention this evening that no one except members and staff be on the floor. I would hope that individuals would not come at that time relating to exceptions concerning family or friends or children. As much as I might like to have them as our guests, I would hope that that could be reserved until the Joint Session which will come at the end of the evening. I think our first order of business must be to complete the business of this House. So, please, I'll announce it again when we have a full House, please do not expect exceptions can be made at that time. The only way we can complete our business in an orderly fashion is to have only members and staff and, of course, our friends from the Laurel Club on the floor.
