The motion is on acceptance and passage in concurrence with the Senate.

Will you remark, sir?

REP. DARGAN (115th):

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This bill came from our LCO commissioner's office request that -- that be -- that our committee, Public Safety and Security Committee, make technical corrections to the public safety statute and also add a new section of the effective date of putting it out two years to the year 2013 and in that it will make those technical changes to various public safety statutes, mostly affecting hazardous chemicals and flammable liquids.

DEPUTY SPEAKER O'ROURKE:

Very good, please proceed.

REP. PERILLO (113th):

Mr. Speaker, through you to Representative Dargan, the extension of two years as to the acceptance of regulations, what is the purpose of that? Why does the Department of Public Safety need that extension?

Through you, sir.

DEPUTY SPEAKER O'ROURKE:

Representative Dargan.

REP. DARGAN (115th):

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Through you, the Department of Public Safety needed the two years to effectively make these changes because of the different provisions within the Department of Public Safety and the statutes that impact this part of the -- of this code.

Through you, Mr. Speaker.

DEPUTY SPEAKER O'ROURKE:

Representative Perillo.

REP. PERILLO (113th):

Thank you very much.

I -- I understand that that's needed in this.

case and, you know, I understand also that DPS has a lot of work to do, a lot on its plate, but at the same time I think going forward though we should vote for this bill today. I think we need hold our Department's feet to the fire and if they're given a time period by which they need to have regulations completed then, by God, they ought to have their regulations completed.

And I know for example blasting regulations, through DPS, have been sitting out there for ages and municipalities who want to be able to enforce good regs haven't been able to do so. So in this case I understand what's before us. We need to move forward and we need to vote yes, in my opinion, but at the same time, going forward I think we need to look long and hard at these requests to determine whether or not they're merited or whether we're just pushing problems off to tomorrow.

DEPUTY SPEAKER O'ROURKE:

Thank you, Representative.

Representative Conway.

Will you remark on the bill? Will you remark?
