putting them out there to work with nonprofits that serviced our -- our disadvantaged really opened their eye and so it was two-fold. They -- they got to put their service in. They worked off their fine and many of them come back to actually give more time to the community.

So from that perspective I would say yes. As far as -- we would be willing to allow the courts to make that discretion because, again, on a case-by-case basis there very well may be a youngster that you just -- you need to apply a -- a financial fine to as -- and then somebody else it may be a combination of both or the community service. But the community service aspect has worked well with our juvenile justice system in Milford and our probation system and, in fact, I think our two officers, one of them actually works on a -- keeping kids out of -- out of jail through that piece. So thank you very much for bringing that up.

REP. REBIMBAS: Thank you for answering that.

Thank you, Mr. Chair.

SENATOR DOYLE: Thank you.

Any more questions from the Committee?

Seeing none, thank you.

Next speaker is Richard Foley, then Marissa Heglin. Richard.

RICHARD FOLEY: Good afternoon, Mr. Chairman and Committee members. My name is Richard Foley. I'm here today to speak on Raised Bill 5328 which is An Act Establishing a Fine Art Secured Lending License.

This is an emerging industry. It's just recently come up. We have talked to the Committee Chairman and some Committee members and the Rankings in an effort to get a sense of the Committee. We've taken that -- those comments and sort of reworked them. I've provided copies to the Clerk's desk.

The first law we -- we did endeavor to find a definition of what fine art is which would seem to be a good idea if you're going to have a bill that's going to license it. Now the -- we replicate a lot of the language that exists in -- in the pawn statute but this is a -- a much different kind of industry. It's not about somebody's used saxophone. It's about a piece of artwork that has significant value.

What people do and comp -- not just people but companies do is they will come in and post this as collat -- effectively as collateral for a loan, either for their personal use or for their business or for their corporation. It may be any - any of the above. That then sits there in a secured facility and, at a future date, is redeemed or not and that's sort of where -- where it sits.

And we -- we are clearly open to discussion and -- and understand that the Committee should always have ultimate input.

Thank you for your time.

SENATOR DOYLE: Thank you.

Any questions from the Committee? Seeing none, thank you very much.

RICHARD FOLEY: Have a good day.

With that, I am going to call on a good friend of ours who always has a smile on her face, Representative Lile Gibbons, come on up.

(Representative Gibbons in the Chair.)

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

You know, it's very dangerous when you let the animals out of the zoo because you don't know what I'm going to do. And since I'm up here, the very first pronouncement I'm going to say, because I get to be speaker for all of three minutes, is first of all, all sessions from now on will be conducted during regular business hours and we can -- and we can debate for the next five hours what regular business hours are.

Secondly, when I go like this, that means all debate is to be terminated and everybody is to vote, so.

Okay. Will the Clerk please call Calendar Number 101?

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Representative Taborsak.

REP. TABORSAK (109th):

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I must say it's an honor to bring out a bill before you.

I move acceptance of the Joint Committee's favorable report and passage of the bill.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

The question is acceptance of the Joint Committee's favorable report and passage of the bill.

Will you remark, sir?

REP. TABORSAK (109th):

I will. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Madam Speaker, the Clerk is in possession of a strike-all amendment, LCO Number 4234. I would ask that the Clerk call that amendment, and I be granted leave of Chamber to summarize.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Will the Clerk please call LCO Number 4234, which will be designated house amendment Schedule "A"?

THE CLERK:

LCO 4234, House "A," offered by Representatives
Taborsak and Rebimbas.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

The Representative seeks leave of the Chamber to summarize the amendment.

Is there objection to summarization? Is there objection?

Hearing none, Representative Taborsak, you may proceed with summarization.

REP. TABORSAK (109th):

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Madam Speaker, the strike-all amendment before the Chamber is a bill establishing a fine art secured lending license. The bill before the Chamber very closely mirrors our -- what people know as our pawn broker statutory scheme. What it does is it addresses a need of a niche industry in our state that provides a service to Connecticut residents who have pieces of fine art valued over $2,500, and that are looking for some financing. The financing that can be provided under this bill is similar to that that a pawn broker provides, except that these entities would be specializing in fine art.

The bill before you follows the same consumer smj/law/djp/gbr protection requirements that people might be familiar with from our pawn broker statutory scheme, a very familiar computerized record keeping system to ensure that these transactions are legitimate and can be tracked, and that we're not fostering an environment where stolen property can be sold in the marketplace.

Madam Speaker, the bill before you is a good bill for consumers. It addresses a need in an industry that is growing in the state of Connecticut. I move adoption.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

The question is on adoption of house amendment Schedule "A".

Will you remark on the amendment? Will you remark further? Will you remark further on the amendment before us?

Oh, I'm sorry, excuse me. Representative Rebimbas, I don't see you.

REP. REBIMBAS (70th):

Good afternoon, Mrs. speaker. It's certainly my honor to be able to comment on this amendment which turns into the underlying bill while having you there. And it's also very appropriate that we're establishing a fine art secured legislation when we have a fine classy speaker on the pulpit there.

So, through you, Madam Speaker, a question to the proponent of the amendment.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Please proceed, Representative.

REP. REBIMBAS (70th):

Through you, Madam Speaker, to the Chairman of the General Law Committee.

Just to highlight again what the minimum qualifications for something to be considered a fine art, could you let -- tell the Chamber what the minimum market value for any item to be considered a fine art?

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Representative Taborsak, you have the floor.

REP. TABORSAK (109th):

Through you, Madam Speaker, $2,500.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Representative Rebimbas.

REP. REBIMBAS (70th):

Thank you. And thank you to the Chairman for highlighting that, and thank you, Madam Speaker.

I just wanted to rise in support of the amendment, that it is going to be the underlying bill.

This is a very important piece of legislation for this particular piece of the industry because, again, they were regulated under the pawnbrokers and we are talking about fine art. These are items that are $2,500 or more. And certainly I think that's distinguishable, but at the same time the legislation before us certainly mirrors and is very similar to all the rules and regulations that they needed to follow under the pawnbrokers. And I think this is a regulated industry that will be able to deter additional thefts and also allow for our municipalities, police officers to conduct proper investigations.

So, again, it does not weaken the rules and regulations that they were governed by, but in fact it just creates a new category for them so they can be properly recognized as a fine arts dealer. So, I do stand in support of this piece of legislation and ask that my colleagues do as well.

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Thank you, Representative.

Will you remark further?

Representative Smith of the 108th.

REP. SMITH (108th):

Thank you, Madam Speaker, and good afternoon.

Just a quick question, if I may, for the proponent of the bill.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Representative Taborsak.

Please proceed.

REP. SMITH (108th):

I'm looking at the lines 270 to 272 and then 266 to 269 which sets forth the penalties for a violation of this act. And I see a violation for one who willfully engages in business of a fine art and secured lender without a license is a class D felony.
And my question to the proponent is would that be the same for the pawnbroker license as well?

Through you, Madam Speaker.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Representative Taborsak.

REP. TABORSAK (109th):

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Through you, yes, that is correct.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

REP. YACCARINO (87th):

Thank you, Madam Speaker. It's a pleasure to see you up there.

Just one quick question through you, Madam Speaker.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Representative Taborsak, absolutely.

Please proceed.

REP. YACCARINO (87th):

Thank you, Madam Speaker.

I currently own for 21 years a collectible business, and from time to time I have items that are two to 3,000, $4,000, which is very rare, but it does happen. Will I fall under this? I've had an existing business license with the State for the last 21 years.

Through you, Madam Speaker.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Representative Taborsak.

REP. TABORSAK (109th):

Through you, Madam Speaker.

To try to answer the gentleman's question, this really pertains to businesses, people that want to go into the business of pawning, which is to really take an item as collateral for a loan that is provided. I don't think that the business that you described would be considered pawning, so, I think the answer is no.

Through you, Madam Speaker.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Representative Yaccarino.

REP. YACCARINO (87th):

Thank you for the answer.

Thank you.

REP. SHARKEY (88th):

Representative, thank you, Madam Speaker. I was almost heartbroken that I wasn't going to have the opportunity to offer a few comments upon your retirement.

You know, I know the minority leader has spoken very eloquently in the past and today about the nature of this place being a family. And I couldn't agree more, and I think one of the things that really makes the family work is the sense of goodness that we get from each other and that we draw from each other. And I think I can speak for all of us on this side of the aisle that that is perhaps your greatest signature from our standpoint. You have always demonstrated a grace and a friendliness as well as an intelligence Lile has been a dear friend of all of us and mine especially. She has been so incredibly helpful during my tenure as leader of this caucus. All of us, I guess, could do a heck of a lot of other things in life, maybe some more important, and certainly Lile is one of those people who could have done a whole host of different, probably more exciting things. But I think she'd be the first to tell you that she might not have been able to do something as rewarding. And what I have so admired about Lile is that over 12 years she has devoted herself, of course, to her District, certainly to this Chamber, and in particular the Human Services Committee which was very near and dear to her heart. She has a huge, huge heart.

Madam Speaker, you have graced us with your presence and your leadership. You have graced me and others with your friendship. I wish you all the best, and I'm going to miss you. Good luck.

SPEAKER GIBBONS:

Thank you. Thank you very much.

Oh, my goodness, okay. Okay, thank you. I don't think we've passed this bill yet or voted on it. Are we going to the bill?
