

CONNECTICUT ARCHIVES MONTH — OCTOBER 2019

Ensure that Digital Family Records Endure

- IDENTIFY YOUR DIGITAL RECORDS AND WHERE YOU KEEP THEM
- KEEP ONLY THE BEST IMAGES
- ORGANIZE YOUR FILES
- DESCRIBE THEM WELL
- BACK-UP YOUR FILES

For more information on preserving digital family records visit: <https://ctstatelibrary.org/electronic-records-day/>.

SPONSORED BY THE CONNECTICUT STATE HISTORICAL RECORDS ADVISORY BOARD

Clapp-Martin Marriage Certificate, MSS 1894.0010, Hampton Antiquarian and Historical Society Records, Archives & Special Collections at the Thomas J. Dodd Research Center, University of Connecticut Libraries
Military Service Record, MSS 2017.0197, James T. Smith Papers, Archives & Special Collections at the Thomas J. Dodd Research Center, University of Connecticut Libraries
Teacher's Retirement Association certificate, MSS 2003.0089, Leavenworth Family Papers, Archives & Special Collections at the Thomas J. Dodd Research Center, University of Connecticut Libraries
Manzella Carrington with her children Alexander H. and Nannette and her mother, Eliza Williams, 1890, tintype on lacquered iron plate, 1981.136.36, the Connecticut Historical Society
Passport of Tommasina Catone; RG 010 Department of Education, Connecticut; Passport and Birth Certificates, 1852-1928; Connecticut State Archives, Connecticut State Library
Photo of Christobal Hidalgo; RG 012, War Records Department; Service Records, 1913-1945; Connecticut State Archives, Connecticut State Library
Storage media photographs, courtesy of Brian Stevens, Archivist and Special Collections Librarian, Western Connecticut State University